Natural cosmetics

*with the best
out of our nature*

As a manufacturer of multiple private label products and industrial brands, we see it as our obligation to continuously develop sustainable product solutions.

We are focussed on subjects like the following:

- reduction of plastic packaging
- ensuring of established waste cycles
- carbon neutrality
- usage of recycled materials
- eco-friendly ingredients

As a consequence of this we decided to pursue a new approach for sustainable, natural products:

Development, production and filling of certified natural cosmetics!

Alongside to existing quality levels this will be confirmed by product certification according to NATRUE criteria – which is the standard for natural cosmetics.

CERTIFIED
NATURAL COSMETIC

Developed by cosmetics manufacturers, the certification forms a basis for natural cosmetics products. The related, well-known and appreciated seal stands for confidence and quality.

Our formulations for natural cosmetics ensure:

- No usage of synthetical colourants, fragrances and preservatives (such as parabens)
- No usage of petroleum-based ingredients (such as paraffins)
- No usage of silicone
- No usage of genetically modified organisms

Beyond that we secure the use of ingredients from natural origin or nature-identical substances. All steps of our manufacturing process are environment-friendly and resource-saving.
